Country Manor House Wedding Venue in Creeksea, Essex

Welcome

Creeksea Place is one of Essex's best kept secrets. This beautiful Tudor mansion set in 35 acres of Essex Countryside is a true hidden gem.

Creeksea Place was originally built in 1569 and has been in the Bertorelli Family since 1947. I, as the current custodian, agreed in recent years for Creeksea Place and the estate to be used for Special events on an exclusive basis.

We have a license for civil ceremonies held either in our magnificent Walled Garden, under the Marble Gazebo in our Orchard, or in the Pavilion on the Lake. Alternatively select from one of our Inhouse Locations. Reception drinks can be served in the walled garden or on the lawn with magical views of the Victorian bridge and lake.

For your wedding breakfast and evening reception during the summer months we have a beautiful luxury marquee in our grounds with majestic views of the house. As dusk approaches we illuminate the house with spotlights and hundreds of candles for a truly enchanted feel.

At Creeksea Place we have our own full time team of experts of which I am justly proud.

The creativity of our chef is second to none and we try to source produce locally. Our range of menus will cater for an afternoon garden party through to a spectacular wedding breakfast in our luxurious marquee for up to 200 guests*. Our experienced Event Managers are on hand to check every detail on your day is perfect and we always work enthusiastically with you to ensure your event is unique.

Nothing is ever left to chance at Creeksea Place. Creeksea Place guarantees you memories that will last a lifetime.
